BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY

BOISE STATE is designated a doctoral research institution by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education, and currently has 11 doctoral programs.

The COLLEGE OF EDUCATION’S GRADUATE PROGRAMS are ranked in the top three in the Northwest. Boise State University was one of five universities in the nation recognized in 2017 by the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities for innovative efforts to help students stay in college and complete their degrees.

Boise State is the first public university to collaborate with Harvard Business School’s innovative online program, known as HBX CORE, bringing the Harvard business curriculum to Idaho.

The SCHOOL OF THE ARTS debuted at Boise State in fall 2017.

The HONORS COLLEGE has grown to more than 900 students.

Along with welcoming the largest first-year class in Boise State history, the university has more students living on campus than ever before — more than 2,800 — thanks in part to the new 650-bed Honors College and Sawtooth Hall.
